Place Your Personal Appearance on the Higher Custom Tailored Plane

Because one's appearance and clothes are things of a personal nature, they must be decided by yourself: Your friends and acquaintances all have their opinions of your clothes and may express them to each other, but never to you. How important, therefore, that your own pride and confidence in your personal appearance be justified---borne out by your clothes. There is only one way that you can truly express your personality in clothes, and that is by having them built exclusively for you:

$39—A remarkable display of rich imported custom suitings presenting a weave and shading for every taste and every purpose. Woolliems that we tailor regularly at $50, $55 and $60.

$27. A grouping of odd suit lengths that present remarkable value at this low cost. Here are imported Irish Serges and Double Twist Weaves.
